Ward Manager Leadership Development Programme announced

We are delighted to announce that we have been commissioned to deliver a Ward Manager Leadership Development Programme as part of NHS England's Mental Health, Learning Disability and Autism (MHLDA) Inpatient Quality Transformation Programme. The aim of the overall programme is to re-imagine a bold new vision for inpatient services where people are treated with compassion, experience care that is safe and therapeutic, and the staff and people they support can flourish.

What would the impact be on a bigger scale?

Grace Cook reflects on the evaluation of our Resilience-based Clinical Supervision project for the SE of England. A great impact though only for a small proportion of health and social care professionals.

How can we ensure everyone has access to clinical supervision?

Person-centred Cultures: A FoNS Development Programme

With only a couple of weeks left until the closing date for applications, please do share this fantastic opportunity with colleagues, and/or consider applying yourself. FoNS programmes are transformational – and this new partnership with the Burdett Trust for Nursing will be no exception. FoNS has been working with nurses and midwives for over 30 years, and is a leader in culture change work in the health and care sector. This programme will enable leaders of care teams to develop the skills and confidence to really impact the culture of their workplace.

If you're interested, you'll need to contact your exec level nurse for support, along with your line manager. Organisational support is vital if you are to make the most of this opportunity, and your conversation with them is an opportunity to show your passion, and work through why it is you want to do this programme.

Any questions? A drop in information session will be held online using MS Teams. No need to book, just come along.
