

The FoNS Weekly News

Person-centred Cultures: A FoNS Development Programme

Exploring values and beliefs to create a shared purpose

Looking at what is happening in practice to identify gaps between what we say and what we do

Develop action plans through shared decision making

Embedding team working and staff wellbeing

Commit to learning in and from practice

Celebrate success and continue momentum

<https://www.fons.org/programmes-development-opportunities/person-centred-cultures-programme/>

Resilience-based Clinical Supervision for Social Care: What really happens in the sessions?

This week we publish a blog from RBCS Social Care Facilitator and Programme Lead Sue Hill. So what really happens in the sessions? Read her powerful account.

Sue's blog

And there are lots of dates for cohorts starting from August onwards – so please do share.

Person-centred Cultures: A FoNS Development Programme

In case you didn't see it last week, we are proud and delighted to be able to offer this fully funded programme, which will support nurse and midwife leaders to develop the confidence, skills and understanding to create person-centred workplace cultures.

The programme draws on elements of the hugely transformative Inspire Improvement Programme, and is underpinned by FoNS's Creating Caring Cultures, along with the Person-centred Practice model and the Person-centred Leadership framework.

We have some 'drop in' sessions for people who want to find out more about this fantastic programme. No need to book, just come along to one of the sessions below.

04 July 2024 10:00-10:30 Join the meeting

12 July 2024 11:00-11:30 Join the meeting

17 July 2024 10.30-11.00 Join the meeting

25 July 2024 11-11.30 Join the meeting

Don't forget closing date is Wednesday 14 August

Person-centred Cultures: A FoNS Development Programme

Workforce strategy for adult social care launch

Skills for Care has been leading the development of this Workforce strategy. The strategy identifies the workforce needed over the next 15 years and sets out a plan for ensuring the sector has enough of the right people with the right skills.

Live streaming of the launch event (18 July 10.15-11.30). Book your free place

Nursing Live: 23-24 October 2024

FoNS's Grace Cook will be speaking at this free event in Liverpool as part of 'Colleagues in conversation - Developing synergy between health and social care'

'Nursing Live brings thousands of nursing staff together to enjoy two days of high-quality professional development, peer-to-peer collaboration, wellbeing, and lifestyle activities.'

Find out more and book your free ticket via the Nursing Live website

Liked this week's issue? Don't forget to share!

Privacy

Terms

Foundation of Nursing Studies

11-13 Cavendish Square London W1G 0AN, London
United Kingdom

Unsubscribe